

Cheryl Ann Palmer, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

In bustling urban havens, Cheryl represents sales listings and buyers across the vibrant neighborhoods of Manhattan and the picturesque Hudson/Bergen Counties.

New York City, New York Jan 22, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - A licensed real estate agent in both New York and New Jersey, Cheryl is proudly affiliated with Coldwell Banker Realty. She operates out of the Ridgewood/Glen Rock Office in New Jersey and the Hudson Valley Regional Sales Center Office in New York.

Bringing a wealth of experience as an investor, realtor, and broker, Cheryl specializes in residential, commercial, and industrial real estate, along with land transactions for buyers, sellers, investors, and leaders. Feng Shui certified, she adds a unique touch to her service, offering an expert eye for detail, staging, and property management, particularly for investors.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Cheryl spent her formative years in Maryland and has lived in various locations, including Canada, Florida, Texas, and New York. She holds an Associate's Degree in Mass Communications from the University of Houston and has a background as an actress affiliated with the Screen Actors Guild and Actors' Equity.

Her journey into real estate began with appraisal school in Florida, leading to roles with a commercial broker and private developers. Over time, she honed her broad skills and expertise. In 1993, Cheryl obtained her real estate license in New Jersey, selling properties in Hoboken and northern areas. Driven by her passion for real estate, she also managed a sizable portfolio of family-owned properties and became a self-managed real estate investor.

After achieving success as a residential sales specialist at Remax Villa, Cheryl earned her Broker designation and joined the prominent brokerage firm Douglas Elliman in 2016.

Leveraging her extensive background in commercial, appraisal, and development, she now guides clients toward profitable opportunities with Coldwell Banker Realty. Clients working with Cheryl benefit from her profound understanding of the real estate process, recognizing the significance of property as both a home and a major investment.

Extremely sensitive to people's unique needs, Cheryl is dedicated to finding the most suitable options and focused on skillfully negotiating in each client's best interest. Her adeptness extends to ensuring open communication and follow-through, fostering satisfaction, repeat business, and referrals from happy clients.
