New York City, New York Jan 4, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Dvoskin, an accomplished physiatrist, is an integral part of the esteemed team of pain doctors at Pain Management NYC. In addition to seeing patients at the offices in Queens and Manhattan, he holds the esteemed position of Medical Director at Hudson Surgery Center in Manhattan.

Holding an academic appointment, Dr. Dvoskin serves as an Assistant Clinical Professor of Rehabilitation and Human Performance at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai. His hospital affiliations extend to Mount Sinai Beth Israel and Mount Sinai Brooklyn.

A Brooklyn native, Dr. Dvoskin completed his undergraduate education at Cornell University and earned his Medical Degree from St. George's University School of Medicine in 2012. He subsequently did his residency in physical medicine and rehabilitation at SUNY Upstate Medical Center, after which he moved to Atlanta, Georgia to complete his fellowship in interventional pain medicine at Emory University.

Currently, Dr. Dvoskin expanded his knowledge base by completing a dual MBA/MS in Healthcare at Cornell University.

Demonstrating his commitment to excellence, he holds board certifications in both pain medicine and physical medicine and rehabilitation, conferred by the American Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (ABPMR). The AMBMR was established in 1947 as the certifying body for the field of physical medicine and rehabilitation under the American Board of Medical Specialties.

As an active participant in professional circles, Dr. Dvoskin is a dedicated member of the North American Spine Society, the International Spine Intervention Society, the Society of General Internal Medicine, and the American Medical Association.

Physical medicine and rehabilitation, also known as physiatry and physiatrics, is a branch of medicine that aims to enhance and restore functional ability and quality of life to those with physical impairments or disabilities. Physiatrists treat a wide variety of medical conditions affecting the brain, spinal cord, nerves, bones, joints, ligaments, muscles, and tendons.

Outside of practicing medicine, Dr. Dvoskin enjoys entrepreneurship, traveling, reading, and fencing.
