

Holley Ring, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

To Holley, the greatest honor is helping her clients make sound investments and smart decisions, striving to be their advisor in all things real estate related for life.

New York City, New York Feb 15, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Holley is an accomplished real estate agent with Windermere Midtown - Queen Anne in Seattle, Washington. She specializes in residential, luxury, and investment properties, with a primary focus on Queen Anne and Magnolia neighborhoods.

A proud alumna of the University of Washington, Holley acquired valuable business acumen during her tenure in the tech industry. Opting for a bold career shift, she pursued her true passion for real estate.

Despite her previous involvement as an investor and homeowner, Holley realized that her true calling was to make real estate her full-time profession. On a professional level, Holley holds certifications as an Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), Certified Residential Specialist (CRS), and Luxury Marketing Specialist, and as a Windermere Luxury Advisor.

When working with buyers, Holley recognizes the stress and frustration that can come with purchasing in a competitive market. She emphasizes the importance of understanding her clients deeply – their lifestyle, family, work, values, and priorities. Guiding them through the market intricacies, she ensures they are well-prepared to compete successfully for their perfect home.

When working with sellers, Holley collaborates closely to develop and execute tailored marketing plans for their homes. This includes professional photography, designer staging, optimized online presence, quality marketing materials, targeted campaigns, and appealing open houses. Drawing inspiration from the tech industry, they strategically plan timelines and market positioning for maximum exposure and “buzz”.

Negotiation is a significant aspect of Holley's role, and she brings years of experience and training in various negotiation tactics to the table. She firmly believes in the win-win approach and has built trust and positive relationships with colleagues. She employs creative thinking to explore options and opportunities, always prioritizing her clients' best interests.

With an impressive 20+ year track record in the industry, Holley derives immense satisfaction from assisting individuals in finding their ideal homes and helping them achieve their objectives by maximizing returns on significant investments. Almost all of her clients are by referral or are repeat buyers and sellers.

Attributing her success to attentiveness to clients' needs, strong connections with them, and honesty, Holley consistently earns recognition as a top-performing agent within the Windermere network.

Committed to community service, she actively supports the Queen Anne community as a sponsor and advocate for organizations like Queen Anne Little League and Queen Anne Helpline. Engaging in school support through parent committees for QAE, University Prep, and Bishop Blanchet High School, Holley also contributes her expertise to the Windermere Standards of Practice Board, upholding industry standards for professionalism and service.
