Get to know Podiatrist Dr. Jennifer Tauber, who serves patients in New Canaan, Connecticut.

New York City, New York Jan 25, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - With over 15 years in practice as a board-certified podiatrist, Dr. Tauber is a trusted practitioner. She proudly welcomes patients to her practice, New Canaan Podiatry, in New Canaan, Connecticut.

While Dr. Tauber has special interests in diabetic foot care and chronic foot and ankle conditions, she also offers a wide variety of treatments and aesthetic solutions. Her services include extracorporeal pulse activation technology (EPAT) treatments and Multiwave Locked System (MLS®) laser therapy for patients dealing with soft tissue injuries and inflammation.

With in-depth training in the use of the Fotona laser, Dr. Tauber employs this cutting-edge laser platform at her on-site facility. This advanced technology allows her to address various concerns, such as minimizing spider veins, removing unwanted body hair, and treating fungal nail infections.

Patients under the care of Dr. Tauber appreciate not only her expertise but also her commitment to providing a personalized and family-like experience. Known for her brief wait times and comprehensive approach, she focuses on treating the whole patient, not just the feet they walk in on, ensuring that every visit is entirely comprehensive.

A Connecticut native, Dr. Tauber completed her Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology at Manhattan College in Riverdale, New York. She was then accepted into graduate school and earned her Doctor of Podiatric Medicine Degree from the New York College of Podiatric Medicine in New York City.

Furthering her training, Dr. Tauber went on to complete her internship, followed by her podiatric medical residency at Saint Barnabas Hospital in the Bronx, New York.

Board certified in diabetic wound care and diabetic shoes, she is a Diplomate of the American Board of Multiple Specialties in Podiatry.

To ensure she is always up-to-date with the latest medical advancements and treatment solutions, Dr. Tauber maintains several professional memberships. She is a member of the American Podiatric Medical Association, the Connecticut Podiatric Medical Association, and the Gait and Clinical Movement Analysis Society, among others.

Away from the office, Dr. Tauber sits on the Board of Directors for the Connecticut Podiatric Medical Association. She is also affiliated with Danbury Hospital.

Podiatry is a branch of medicine devoted to the study, diagnosis, and medical and surgical treatment of a variety of disorders of the foot, ankle, and lower extremity.
