

Kim Harp, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Delivering a Five-Star real estate experience, Kim educates her clients and shares in their journey for a new place to call HOME.

New York City, New York Jan 15, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - With a decade of experience in the real estate industry, Kim is an accomplished realtor at Coldwell Banker Realty in Parker, Colorado.

A Denver native and Highlands Ranch resident of over three decades, Kim is considered a local real estate expert. Working with both buyers and sellers in the metro Denver area, she has experience with a variety of homes from condos to rustic mountain cabins.

"I strive to make buying and selling a home easy and informative: I truly care about my clients and their comfort level throughout the entire process."

Before venturing into real estate, Kim served as a Systems Analyst at Andersen Consulting. Driven by a passion for interior design and a desire to connect with people, she transitioned into the real estate field. Her meticulous nature has made her an expert in handling contracts, thanks to her keen attention to detail.

In addition to earning a Master of Business Administration Degree, Kim has acquired several certifications, including Accredited Staging Professional (ASP), Seniors Real Estate Specialist (SRES) Pricing Strategy Advisor (PSA), Real Estate digital marketing, and REALTOR®. She also writes blogs about real estate and has appeared on HGTV House Hunters Renovation.

Kim attributes her success to her commitment to openness, honesty, and trustworthiness in all her dealings. The majority of her clients come from referrals, a testament to the strong relationships she builds.

In her personal life, Kim is happily married to her husband, another University of Denver graduate. They have been blessed with two children, a daughter and a son.

Cherishing all things Colorado, Kim is a devoted fan of DU Hockey, passionately supporting the Colorado Avalanche Hockey and Denver Broncos.
