

Lyndsey Bush-McVeigh, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Committed to guiding both buyers and sellers with sincere ethical intent, Lyndsey ensures their best interests are served in each and every real estate transaction.

New York City, New York Jan 23, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Lyndsey is a licensed Realtor-Associate® currently associated with See Real Estate in Monroe City, Missouri.

For her clients, she aims to simplify the home buying/selling process, ensuring a hassle-free and enjoyable experience. Lyndsey also strives to build a solid foundation of trust, aiming to cultivate lasting relationships with her clients so that they feel comfortable returning to her as valued patrons.

Originally from Michigan, also known as the “Mitten State,” Lyndsey relocated to Shelby County, Missouri in 2008. In that same year, she acquired her real estate license.

Before entering the real estate field, Lyndsey dedicated 12 years to the hospitality sector. Her transition to real estate was motivated by a genuine love for working with people, and over time, it has evolved into a true passion.

On a professional level, Lyndsey is a member of the Mark Twain Board of REALTORS®, Missouri REALTORS®, and the National Association of REALTORS®.

Recognized for her professionalism, honesty, and reliability, Lyndsey credits her success to these attributes and the invaluable support of her exceptional broker, who also serves as her mentor. Her noteworthy accolades include being named Rookie of the Year and receiving the prestigious Bronze and Silver Star Awards.

Lyndsey, along with her family, made Shelby, Knox, Lewis, Macon, and Adair Counties in Missouri their home, drawn by the exceptional quality of life and employment opportunities these areas offer.

Together with her husband, Josh, and their two sons, Lyndsey has fully immersed herself in all aspects of Northeast Missouri living. From engaging in sports and hunting to exploring the Rutledge Flea Market, she has seamlessly integrated into the culture of the Show Me State, embodying the Missouri Motto of “Let the welfare of the people be the supreme law.”
