About The Author:

Nashat Helal is an accomplished and growth-driven financial executive with twenty-five-plus years of experience leading various businesses. During his journey in Corporates he witnessed a lot of his colleagues at different levels sharing a common struggle, The Decision-Making Process. Witnessing how this struggle stripped them of their confidence and their adaptability diminished in the process inspired him to start coaching and counseling others at early stages of his career.

A devoted husband and father of 3 lovely kids, he is an athlete himself, plays professional tennis, and travels the world by participating in IronMan races.
