

Sandra Paoli, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Empowering people... One home at a time!

New York City, New York Jan 25, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Sandra, a highly accomplished real estate broker and realtor, is currently affiliated with Windermere Willamette Valley in Monmouth, Oregon.

Possessing extensive knowledge and experience in residential real estate, Sandra specializes in various facets, including short sales, resale, and guiding first-time home buyers. With an active real estate license in Oregon, she has devoted 17 years to facilitating distinctive transactions, fostering a genuine passion for her profession.

"My clients always come first. My primary focus is to empower each and every one of my clients in selling and/or buying their home with a professional and personal approach. I realize that residential real estate transactions can be an emotional experience for my clients. I don't trust my dreams to just anyone and don't expect you to either. I believe that staying within the community that I'm familiar with helps me to provide the best information in a timely manner, and delivering what I promise has been the key to my success."

Demonstrating her commitment to the local business community, Sandra serves on the board of the Monmouth/Independence Chamber of Commerce and participates in the Monmouth Business Association and the Independence Downtown Association. Additionally, she holds memberships in both the Willamette Valley Multiple Listing Service and the Regional Multiple Listing Service. In 2020, Sandra assumed the role of President of the Polk County Association of Realtors.

Her dedication to community involvement extends beyond her role as a realtor. Sandra has been actively engaged with the Monmouth-Independence Community Preschool (MICP), Mothers of Preschoolers (MOPS), the Monmouth Elementary School's Parent Teacher Association (PTA), Monmouth Indoor Park, Monmouth Fitness Center, and is associated with the Monmouth Christian Church.

Even during her tenure as a stay-at-home mom, Sandra maintained her professional standing by providing daycare services and working as a Creative Memories Scrapbook Consultant. As a parent with three children attending different schools in the community, she holds a deep investment in the public education system.
