

Tammy Crochiere, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

“Real estate, for me, is more than a profession, it’s a genuine connection, a lifestyle, and a source of pride in making a difference.”

New York City, New York Jan 23, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Serving Western Massachusetts and Northern Connecticut, Tammy is the New England team leader of PREMIERE Group, powered by Real Broker, LLC. Part of an exceptional team she holds dear, she takes pride in witnessing its growth and collective success.

With a deep-rooted connection to the Pioneer Valley, Tammy's heart lies in this community where she was born and has spent her entire life. She cherishes this area as more than just a dwelling place, but as a nurturing environment to have raised her three beloved children.

With an extensive background in human resources and sales, Tammy has cultivated an extensive network that continues to flourish. Actively engaged on various social media platforms, she leverages these channels to foster meaningful connections.

A steadfast presence for her clients, Tammy guides them through each step of the process, going above and beyond to ensure a seamless and enjoyable experience. Her approach to real estate goes beyond business transactions; she prioritizes building trust and rapport with her clients.

"What fuels my passion is the genuine connection between people's dreams and the communities I serve. It's not just about buying and selling homes, it's about understanding the unique stories within each neighborhood. I'm committed to more than just transactions, it's a personal journey of finding the right fit for individuals and families. Staying informed and embracing change is my way of ensuring that I offer the best in this ever-evolving market."

Recognizing her dedication to her profession, Tammy was honored with the prestigious Ambassador of the Year Award from the ERC5 Chamber of Commerce in 2023. This accolade stands as a testament to her unwavering work ethic and exemplary service to her clients and community.

Known for her willingness to help others, Tammy proudly shares that one of her most significant achievements is donating a kidney to her mother in 2014. She truly loves being active in her community and is very passionate about meeting new people and making a positive impact on the lives of those around her.

Adding to her diverse interests, Tammy has been known to lend her voice, occasionally singing the National Anthem at numerous military Veteran events.
