

Terry Canto, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Infused with boundless positive energy, Terry guarantees an enjoyable experience, ensuring smooth sailing when selling Florida Keys real estate.

New York City, New York Jan 18, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Terry is a zealous realtor with American Caribbean Real Estate - Christie's International Real Estate. She boasts over three decades of expertise in the Florida Keys' local market, working alongside her husband, Mike Diaz.

Offering comprehensive real estate services, Terry specializes in residential and investment properties, luxury real estate, vacation homes, condos, and luxury waterfront properties. Most of her business comes from past clients that trust her with the referral of their friends and families, as well as other real professionals.

Dedicated to providing the highest level of professional and personalized service, Terry emphasizes honesty and integrity in all client interactions. Leveraging a robust marketing background, she ensures optimal exposure for properties, facilitating swift sales.

Continuously staying abreast of the latest technology, education, and legal changes, Terry strives to deliver top-notch service to her clients. By attending industry conventions and seminars, she focuses on personal development and maintains a positive attitude towards every individual encountered, resulting in successful transactions for both buyers and sellers.

Since she was a child, Terry has had a passion for homes and decor, making her dream of selling homes a reality. She attributes her success to her unwavering commitment to follow-ups and the genuine passion she has for her work. Assisting people in achieving homeownership and being a significant part of their stories is a natural and honored endeavor for her.

When she is not busy working, Terry enjoys traveling, a day on the water, reading, dancing, doing yoga, drinking a glass of wine while watching the sunset with friends and family, and best of all, the laid-back island lifestyle that inspires her to help others with their dream in the Keys.
