

A Contemporary Romance Novel with Theresa Grant's HOPE AND DESIRE at the 2024 Tucson Festival of Books

Rockville, Maryland Feb 15, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - When you only have yourself in this time of troubles and struggles. The only comfort you feel is when you pat yourself that you're fine. Confrontation between people ignites your emotions. Clashes of ideas prove that you're fighting for something. Improving yourself because of dreams, this small hope lets you still believe that you will eventually improve your way of living. Dreams are hopes and promises that you need to climb it.

Author Theresa Grant depicted every young girl with dreams not to give up easily but to pursue their goals in life. Turning dust to gold may be a long process but you're doing it to achieve something. However, you should never be impatient and point to anyone if you realize you have experienced failure. You need to stand tall. You need to be confident. That is what the book HOPE AND DESIRE talks about.

For this year, 2024 Tucson Festival of Books, in collaboration with Authors Press, Theresa Grant will partake in this event and present her book to participants and visitors this coming March 9 & 10, 2024.

“Theresa Grant has written a unique story of a young woman whose dreams for her own life keep getting shattered and taken from her, but she continues to hope and dream...The story is one about her struggles and of her never surrendering her desire and hope that somehow she will succeed.”

— review on Amazon, Rev. Bill McDonald Jr.
