Get to know Pediatrician Dr. Arlyn Marrero-Nasirov, who serves patients in Sacramento, California.

New York City, New York Feb 26, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Marrero epitomizes the fusion of expertise, compassion, and cultural sensitivity in pediatric care. Hailing from the vibrant island of Puerto Rico, she brings a wealth of experience and a multilingual touch to her practice.

Before embarking on her professional journey, her journey in medicine began at the prestigious Universidad Central del Caribe in Puerto Rico, where she completed her rigorous medical training. Driven by her passion for pediatric care, she embarked on a transformative residency at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York, where she honed her skills under the guidance of seasoned professionals.

An authority in her field, the doctor is board-certified in pediatrics by the American Board of Pediatrics (ABP). The mission of the ABP is to advance child health by certifying pediatricians who meet standards of excellence and are committed to continuous learning and improvement.

Among her professional affiliations, Dr. Marrero is actively involved in professional organizations such as the American Academy of Pediatrics and the Puerto Rico Medical Association.

Pediatrics is the branch of medicine that involves the medical care of infants, children, and adolescents. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends individuals be under pediatric care up to the age of 21. Pediatricians provide medical care to people ranging in age from newborns to young adults. They are trained to examine, diagnose, and treat children with a wide variety of injuries and illnesses through all of their developmental stages, as they grow and mature.

As a testament to her success, Dr. Marrero has been recognized with numerous awards and accolades throughout her career, including the prestigious Teacher of the Year Award by Sutter Health and Family Medicine Residency in 2018.
