

Emgage Recognized as Top 30 Startup Companies by World HRD Congress

Ahmedabad, Gujarat Mar 2, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Emgage, a leading Virtual HR as a Service company, has been honored with the prestigious title of Top 30 Startup Companies by the World HRD Congress. This recognition underscores Emgage's dedication to innovation, excellence, and impact in the field of human resources.

The World HRD Congress is a renowned global platform that brings together HR professionals, thought leaders, and industry experts to celebrate excellence and innovation in the field of human resources. The Top 30 Startup Companies award recognizes startups that have shown extraordinary growth, innovation, and potential in the HR sector.

"We are thrilled to be recognized as one of the Top 30 Startup Companies by the World HRD Congress," said Mr. Surendra Varma, Founder & CEO of Emgage. "This award is a testament to the hard work, dedication, and passion of our team. We are committed to driving quality service standards and creating value for our clients."

Emgage offers a range of cutting-edge HR solutions, including onboarding to separation, policy design and audit, payroll & compliance management, and more. The company's innovative technology and personalized approach have helped growing MSMEs streamline their HR processes and drive business success.

As a Top 30 Startup Companies honoree, Emgage will be invited to participate in the World HRD Congress's prestigious award ceremony, where they will have the opportunity to connect with industry leaders, showcase their innovative solutions, and gain valuable insights and networking.
