physician whose professional presence serves the patients of the South Suburbs of Chicago.

Her dedication to healthcare extends beyond this institution, as she maintains affiliations with prominent hospitals and medical centers, including OSF Little Company of Mary and Northwestern Medicine Palos Hospital.

Educated in Poland, Dr. Hampston graduated with her Medical Degree from Jagiellonian University Medical College in 1988. Upon immigrating to the United States, she embarked on further training, completing her internship and residency in family medicine at Ascension Saint Elizabeth in Chicago from 2001 to 2004. This international educational background enriches her approach to patient care, blending diverse perspectives and experiences to provide comprehensive medical services.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.
