

Izis presents his new single “Entre Tú y Mil Mares”, a declaration of love to the rhythm of bachata

Miami, Florida Feb 25, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Puerto Rican artist Izis the nurse, known for her successful musical career and her work as a nurse and soldier, presents her new bachata "Entre Tu y Mil Mares", a Bachata version of the original song by Laura Pausini. The song, whose composition is by Biagio Antonacci, was recorded at Paris Recording Studio, under the production of Eric Maldonado, one of the most renowned producers of the genre.

"Entre Tu y Mil Mares" is a romantic ballad that talks about love at a distance and the hope of being reunited with the person you love. With her sweet and powerful voice, Izis the nurse puts a personal stamp and contagious energy on this melody, which promises to be a hit on radio stations and dance floors.

The song is now available on all digital platforms, and the official video can be seen on the artist's YouTube channel, where you can also find other of her hits, such as "Soy Tu Guajira", "Dos Mujeres Pal' Mundo " and "That Woman."

Izis the nurse, who currently resides in Virginia, United States, continues working on her music and her nursing profession, combining her passion for art with her vocation for service. She is a versatile singer and adapts to different musical genres with the ease of singing in English and Spanish.

Additionally, he continues to support various social and humanitarian causes within his community. With her talent, her charisma and her commitment, Izis the nurse has earned the respect and affection of the public and the industry, which follows and admires her as one of the best exponents of tropical music today: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mqjwwMAm2hI>

Media Contact

Tumbao Media Productions

tumbaomediaproductions@gmail.com

Eugenio Maria de Hostos, Edif. 12, 58

Source : Tumbao Media Productions

See on IssueWire