

Jackie Haddon, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Ensuring clients' needs are met with diligence and care, Jackie uncovers property potential and assists with decisions to stay or find new homes.

New York City, New York Feb 19, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Jackie is a Certified Aging Place Specialist (CAPS), a Seniors Real Estate Specialist (SRES), and a licensed real estate broker in Oregon and Southwest Washington with O'Donnell Group Realty. Her expertise extends to ownership of Jackie Haddon Homes, where she delivers a full array of housing-related services.

From complimentary renovation, and consultations focused on resale value to facilitating connections with skilled contractors, Jackie Haddon Homes provides access to a network of professionals dedicated to assisting clients and their families in making informed decisions.

Whether facilitating clients' decisions to remain in their current residences or assisting in finding new ones, Jackie is unwaveringly committed to guiding them at every stage. Her work is focused on real estate, project consultation, and accessible design - with a focus on luxury homes, multigenerational living, supporting seniors with housing-related life transitions, and representing voices in the industry who have historically been marginalized.

A licensed clinical social worker for most of her career, Jackie is deeply committed to standing up for the rights of others to live with dignity and advocating for equitable access to education, healthcare, and housing. She takes every opportunity to promote women in trades, LGBTQIA+, and minority-owned businesses and can connect her clients with the right person for all of their renovation and design projects.

Utilizing her industry expertise and accessible design background, Jackie offers assistance in optimizing her clients' homes to match their lifestyles and attract future occupants. This not only boosts equity but also enhances the overall enjoyment of the property.

Whether it is connecting clients with trustworthy contractors, reimagining living spaces, or overseeing project management, Jackie takes pride in guiding her clients toward crafting their ideal home tailored precisely to their needs. Witnessing the metamorphosis of a mere house into a personalized home brings her immense joy.

Having written an article in the Merritt Times, Jackie attributes her success to her background in clinical social work, her experience as an administrator in a health agency, and her strong work ethic.

In her personal life, Jackie is a devoted wife, a nurturing mother to three children, and a community activist. She values the opportunity to be of service to her community through volunteer work and donates a portion of her time and income to organizations that dedicate their energy to doing the same.

When not showing houses in Oregon and Washington, volunteering, or navigating the complexities of a family of 5, Jackie is often at her home in Central Oregon. There, she indulges in activities such as hiking, stand-up paddleboarding, relishing the refreshing high desert air, and occasionally savoring a lakeside Pacific Northwest brew.
