

PortaSauna: The New Way to Sauna Anywhere, Anytime – Perfect for the British Winter Walmer

The ultimate camping and outdoor accessory: PortaSauna, the portable wood-fired sauna tent. Ideal for any location, from the British garden to the beach or lake, our camping sauna is the simplest, newest adventure necessity.

Portsmouth, Hampshire Feb 5, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Jordan Boon, a visionary solopreneur from Portsmouth, is thrilled to unveil PortaSauna, a revolutionary startup poised to redefine the outdoors and relaxation industry. Launched in January 2024, PortaSauna introduces a novel concept: a fully portable wood-fired sauna, designed to deliver the opulence of spa treatments right to your doorstep, allowing you to sauna anytime, anywhere, and revolutionising saunas.

Jordan emphasizes, "PortaSauna transcends being merely a business; it embodies a crusade for widespread outdoor adventures and creating memories." The company is committed to making the soothing benefits of sauna sessions universally available, blending convenience with luxury and affordability seamlessly.

PortaSauna's flagship product is engineered to withstand the unpredictable British climate, capable of reaching a cozy 93°C within just 30 minutes. The starter package is meticulously curated, comprising a triple-insulated sauna tent, a robust stainless steel stove, a rock basket, sauna stones, a precise thermometer, a fire poker, and heat-resistant gloves, accompanied by a comprehensive user guide.

This initiative not only caters to those seeking relaxation at home but also to adventurers longing for a slice of luxury in the great outdoors, be it a garden, beach, or camping excursion. PortaSauna aspires to infuse every day with a bit of indulgence, offering an idyllic retreat after a hectic day or enhancing outdoor experiences.

Jordan's entrepreneurial journey, which began with the successful launch of thetshirtman.co.uk, has now evolved into a passionate pursuit of enhancing well-being through PortaSauna. This venture not only aims to offer a unique product but also to foster a community around the shared values of health, wellness, and the joy of the outdoors. By enabling easy access to sauna benefits, PortaSauna seeks to inspire a lifestyle shift towards more mindful relaxation and self-care practices. As PortaSauna continues to grow, it aims to become synonymous with accessible wellness, offering a sanctuary of warmth and relaxation that can be enjoyed anywhere, anytime, reflecting Jordan Boon's visionary approach to entrepreneurship and wellness.
