

Robert De Niro-backed Nobu Restaurant Set to Open at Hotel del Coronado in 2025

Coronado, California Feb 20, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Nobu, the globally renowned Japanese restaurant brand co-founded by acclaimed Chef Nobu Matsuhisa and Academy Award-winning actor Robert De Niro in 1994, is expanding its presence in San Diego with the announcement of a new location at Hotel del Coronado, set to open in early 2025.

The eagerly anticipated Nobu Restaurant will be part of Hotel del Coronado's ambitious $550 million revitalization project, offering patrons a unique dining experience amidst the iconic backdrop of this historic landmark. Spanning 3,700 square feet, the new establishment will feature an indoor dining room, a covered outdoor patio, and a dedicated sushi bar, providing guests with an unforgettable culinary journey.

"Nobu's expansion to Hotel del Coronado marks an exciting milestone for our brand," said Chef Nobu Matsuhisa. "We are thrilled to bring our signature dishes and innovative dining concepts to this iconic destination, offering locals and visitors alike a taste of Nobu's world-class cuisine and unparalleled hospitality."

Patrons can look forward to indulging in Nobu's renowned signature dishes, including the Black Miso Cod and Yellowtail Jalapeño, alongside exclusive menu items and experiences tailored specifically for The Del location.

Backed by industry titans such as producer Meir Teper and restaurateur Drew Niepoorent, Nobu has firmly established itself as a global culinary powerhouse, with 53 locations worldwide, spanning from New York to London, Mexico City to Dubai, and beyond.

"We are honored to partner with Hotel del Coronado to bring Nobu's exceptional dining experience to this historic destination," said Robert De Niro. "Together, we aim to create a one-of-a-kind culinary destination that celebrates the rich heritage of The Del while offering guests an unparalleled gastronomic journey."
