

Beth Cortes, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

An unstoppable force in real estate, Beth leverages her resilience and determination to exceed client expectations and redefine success.

New York City, New York Mar 14, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Beth serves as a devoted realtor at JPAR Real Estate, situated in Fort Worth, Texas. Her enthusiasm for forging new relationships and meaningful connections is evident in her approach to guiding clients towards their dream homes.

Born and raised in Dallas, Beth proudly attended Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts, where she nurtured her passion for dance and art. Despite being diagnosed with progressive hearing loss at the tender age of seven, she remained undeterred. However, in 2002, while working in luxury property management and expecting a child, Beth experienced a sudden loss of residual hearing. Determined not to let this setback define her, she opted for cochlear implants, embarked on the journey of relearning how to hear, and simultaneously pursued her degree from UTD while raising her family.

Pursuing excellence in real estate, Beth will go the extra mile to make sure her clients are understood and their needs are met. With a Seniors Real Estate Specialist (SRES) certification under her belt, she excels in assisting older adults with transitions to new properties, whether for leisure, proximity to loved ones, or senior living arrangements. Beth holds a particular affinity for serving seniors and first responders, a cause deeply rooted in her personal life, given her spouse's involvement in the first responder field.

Further solidifying her commitment to the real estate community, Beth is actively involved in professional associations such as the Greater Fort Worth and Tarrant County Chamber. She credits her success to the values instilled by her parents, emphasizing respect for all and a strong work ethic.
