Haven for Abandoned Children

Based in Kampala, Uganda, Sanyu Babies' Home is a Christian charity with a mission to give newborns and young children who are without parental care Christ-like love. The home makes sure that these little champs receive a feeling of belonging and hope by placing them for adoption, fostering, or family reunification.

Transforming Lives

The ambitious objective of Sanyu Babies' Home is to improve the lives of deprived kids. For many newborns and young children who have experienced the terrible reality of abandonment and orphanhood, the Home has served as a ray of hope. The home was founded with the goal of giving these young people a loving environment, and it has played a significant role in providing them with love, care, and necessary assistance so that they can grow up in a safe and loving setting.

Key Areas of Focus

The collaboration will focus on several key areas to maximize its impact on the lives of children in Uganda:

- Education: Emka Foundation will support the Home in improving access to quality education for children in their care. This includes funding for school fees, books, and other educational resources, as well as training for teachers and staff to ensure a nurturing and supportive learning environment.
- Healthcare: Emka Foundation will work with the Home to enhance access to healthcare services for children. This includes funding for medical supplies, training for healthcare workers, and support for the organization's health clinic to ensure children receive the necessary care to maintain their well-being.
- Psychosocial Support: The collaboration will focus on providing psychosocial support to children in the Home's care. This includes training for staff on how to identify and address the emotional needs of children, as well as support for the organization's counseling services to help children cope with the challenges they face.
