About the Author:

Paul Dean Moore introduces his third narrative set in the quaint towns along Florida's US 98. Drawing from his four decades of ministry, Moore vividly portrays characters inspired by the individuals and families he encountered during times of hardship in diverse circumstances. Moore embraced fiction writing as a personal challenge issued by his youngest daughter, Adina. He dedicates this book to his six children and his in-laws, Clifford and Vernetta Oberg, alongside Jerry and Barbara Miller. Moore and his wife, Sue, reside close to US 98 in Lakeland, Florida.
