New Castle, Pennsylvania Mar 13, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Zombie Beast Films, a local production company founded by award-winning independent filmmaker Vince Burkett, is proud to announce the world premiere of their latest film, "Rotten: Welcome to the Freak Show." The highly anticipated event will take place at Boardman Movies 8 in Youngstown, Ohio on March 24th, 2024 at 6 pm.

"Rotten: Welcome to the Freak Show" is a horror film that follows a bullied youth with a skin disease, after being attacked and left for dead by classmates he is recused by a sideshow ring master and forced into a carnival sideshow. The film promises to be a thrilling and hilarious ride, with Burkett's signature blend of horror and humor. The film features a talented cast of local actors and was shot entirely in New Castle, Pennsylvania.

"We are beyond excited to share our latest film with the world," said Burkett. "We put our heart and soul into this project, and we can't wait for audiences to experience it. It's a love letter to the horror genre and a celebration of our local community."

The world premiere will be an event to remember with the cast and crew in attendance. Tickets can be purchased online at <https://rottenworldpremiere.rsvpify.com>. General admission tickets are $10, All ticket holders will also receive a free digital download of the film.
