

Matt Bailie creates another milestone with the Brand New Single, “Hell On A Hometown”

Sony Music Nashville releases the first of 4 singles to be released in 2024 from Matt Bailie.

Nashville, Tennessee Mar 13, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Florida native versatile musician, Matt Bailie is ready to reach new heights of success with his latest music project “Hell On A Hometown”.

Masterfully designed, this song offers an intriguing musical composition that offers a contemporary country essence with a feel-good vibe. Beautifully written, the song also provides an engaging musical experience through its lyrical approach that can captivate everyone. This single is written by Bailie himself, along with his producer Michael Wilkes, and Henri Gates, as well as country Canadian Country Music artist Jesse Slack. Sony Music Nashville will be releasing the track on April 2nd.

Previously, Bailie has garnered a lot of attention with his highly successful album 'Naked' which was released in 2022 and gathered half a million streams. Three songs from the 'Naked' Album also made its place in the Billboard Top 100. His unparalleled musical skills and creative psyche allow him to tell stories of life that can touch the hearts of millions.

Bailie's magical vocal consists of a uniquely smooth yet gritty essence that sounds organic and greatly engaging. Dealing with the emotional aspects of disappointment, heartbreak, and tragic loss; this artist knows how to resonate with the deeper emotions of his listeners. Follow Matt Bailie on Spotify, Apple Music, and his official website Listen Here to find more.

Media Contact

Sony Music Nashville

markprsony@gmail.com

Source : Sony Music Nashville

See on IssueWire