

Melissa Keffer, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Helping clients find the perfect place to call home or sell their homes for top dollar, Melissa is dedicated to achieving their real estate goals with expertise and care.

with The Wanner Group at Yancey Realty in Charlotte, North Carolina, boasts a rich professional history spanning over five years. Fueled by a passion for helping individuals find their dream homes or secure optimal returns on property investments, she aims to facilitate smooth real estate transactions for her clientele.

Originally from Mount Airy, North Carolina, Melissa pursued Business Management studies at Surry Community College before embarking on a career in the US Army Military Police, where she served diligently from 1993 to 1998.

Following her military tenure, Melissa returned to her hometown, establishing a construction firm while embracing the joys of motherhood, and nurturing her daughter, Joelle, and son, Blake. Her immersion in the construction industry provided her with invaluable expertise, affording her a discerning eye when evaluating properties. Clients trust Melissa to uncover the structural integrity of homes, positioning her as a reliable advisor in the competitive real estate landscape.

In early 2020, Melissa reached a significant milestone by passing the North Carolina real estate licensure examination, marking the beginning of her journey as a licensed real estate agent. Leveraging a broad network of resources, she is equipped to aid in any project that arises, and she is committed to nurturing enduring personal relationships with each of her clients.

Attributing her success to her tenacity and perseverance, Melissa emphasizes the importance of continuous communication and dedicated attention to every aspect of the real estate journey.

In her free time, one can find Melissa volunteering, visiting any of Florida's gorgeous beaches, remodeling homes, gardening, hiking with her dog, Stella, or kayaking - essentially anything that allows her to relish the wonders of the great outdoors!
