

Michael Albin, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Your Fairfield Glade neighborhood specialist, Michael assists clients in finding their perfect home or confidently navigating the process of selling their property.

Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate Gwin Realty in Crossville, Tennessee, Michael boasts over 11 years of expertise in residential real estate transactions.

Renowned for his adeptness in representing both buyers and sellers, Michael holds a certified listing expert designation. His specialization encompasses comprehensive walk-through videos, professional photography, off-market deals, and expired listings, resulting in swift sales of listed properties.

Growing up in Louisville, Kentucky, Michael completed his college education at Eastern Kentucky University. Afterward, he spent 28 years residing in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, before relocating to Fairfield Glade in 2009.

Before transitioning to real estate, Michael pursued a career as a professional artist. Alongside his wife, Patty, he traveled across the country, showcasing and selling their creations at various outdoor fine art shows.

Michael's excellence in the real estate industry has garnered him numerous accolades, including being recognized as the #1 Agent for Dollar Sales Volume in Fairfield Glade in 2016, 2017, 2019, 2020, and 2021, as well as achieving the same honor for Cumberland County in 2016 and 2020. Furthermore, he consistently ranks among the Top 5 Producers in Cumberland County from 2016 to 2021.

Notably, real trends have positioned Michael among the Top 100 Agents in Tennessee for 2020 and 2021, while also lauding him as one of the Best Realtors in America for those same years. His remarkable track record also includes clinching the #1 Listing Agent title for seven consecutive years from 2015 to 2021, demonstrating his unparalleled proficiency in selling homes in Fairfield Glade.

Beyond his professional achievements, Michael is committed to fostering lasting relationships with clients by prioritizing personal connections. He actively engages with his clientele, organizing neighborhood events and lunches to bring them together, showcasing his dedication to both his career and community.

With over 100 million in total sales, Michael credits his achievements to a combination of working smarter, working harder, and simply getting the job done. He has authored 40-50 articles for Sunshine Artist Magazine, highlighting How To Market Art.

Outside of real estate, Michael enjoys playing softball, scuba diving, swimming, hiking, woodworking, fishing, boating, as well as watching and photographing sunsets.
