This isn't just music; it's a mirror to the soul, and it's reflecting back a powerful message of courage and vulnerability. Get ready to experience the melody of resilience!

Behind the Scenes of the Making of a Hit

Sophia isn't just dropping hits – she's weaving life stories into symphonies! The creation process is an electrifying synergy where beats meet biographies, where every hum, chord, and lyric is a glimpse into Sophia's heart. This collaborative masterpiece has everyone buzzing about the potential of finding strength in fear.

The Ultimate Glow-Up: Sophia's Preparations for Performing Live

But, wait – there's more! Sophia has been perfecting her moves with choreography guru Sean Green and training her vocal cords with the legendary Valerie Morehouse. If you thought her music was dynamic, wait until you see her on stage! Felipe Silva, the accomplished lead guitarist of the dynamic Requim Band, carries a multifaceted talent portfolio that extends beyond the music stage.

Separately recognized for his proficiency in photography and videography, Silva's creative repertoire is as diverse as it is impressive. He will be filming Sophia's visual for "Safe". Sophia's new management, led by the notable Murda Murphy will help further her reach within the music market as his expertise is known throughout the industry.

Further heightening Sophia's anticipated success is the complete production of her album produced by the esteemed RoccStar, who has also left his signature touch on Sophia's latest single "Safe" which was recorded at West Lakes Studio in Los Angeles, CA with his engineer Kifano Reque. The triple threat conjured up 10 records in a span of only 4 days.
