New York City, New York Mar 13, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Recognized as a caring and compassionate psychologist, Dr. Furman has tirelessly dedicated herself to the well-being of her patients suffering a blend of profound insight and unwavering support.

She specializes in navigating the intricate terrain of depression, anxiety, and childhood trauma. Her tenure at the center has seen her adeptly handle a myriad of emotional challenges, demonstrating a keen ability to tailor her approach to suit the unique needs of each individual. What sets her apart is her remarkable capacity to bridge cultural divides, fostering an environment of understanding and acceptance while delving into the depths of psychological distress.

After graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from the University of California, Santa Barbara, Dr. Furman went on to further her training, earning both her Master of Arts and Doctor of Psychology degrees from the esteemed California School of Professional Psychology.

She extends her therapeutic reach through a private practice based in the heart of Los Angeles. Here, she continues her mission of healing, offering psychotherapy to a diverse clientele spanning children, adolescents, and adults alike. Her practice serves as a sanctuary of solace and transformation, where individuals find refuge amidst life's storms and emerge strengthened by newfound resilience.

Psychology is the science of behavior and mind. It includes the study of conscious and unconscious phenomena, as well as feeling and thought. It is an academic discipline of immense scope. Psychologists assess, diagnose, and treat the psychological problems and behavioral dysfunctions resulting from, or related to, physical and mental health. In addition, they play a major role in the promotion of healthy behavior, preventing diseases, and improving patients' quality of life.
