Baltimore, Maryland, specializes in residential properties, new constructions, and land acquisitions. She is known for her unparalleled dedication to offering unwavering emotional support to each of her clients.

Her professional journey began in the U.S. Army as a legal assistance clerk for JAG, where Sheri not only acquired valuable life skills but also welcomed her beautiful daughter, Autumn. Transitioning from the Army to Southern California, as a single mother, she delved into the insurance industry and later served the County of San Diego in the Juvenile Probation Department, all while pursuing her dream of becoming a court reporter during evening hours.

In 1996, after graduating from court reporting school, Sheri and her daughter embarked on a cross-country move to Huntington, West Virginia, where she embarked on her first court reporting job, dedicating nearly 8 years in West Virginia to the profession. In 2005, a relocation to the Baltimore area ensued for work, while her daughter pursued a BFA in Acting at Marshall University, remaining in Huntington.

After 23 years as a court reporter, Sheri felt the need for a change. Driven by her passion for making a difference in people's lives, she transitioned to real estate, motivated by her desire to serve others and find fulfillment in her career.

Recognizing that purchasing a home is a significant life investment, Sheri approaches her role with the utmost seriousness. She is committed to working tirelessly to deliver an exceptional experience for her clients, with the primary goal of exceeding expectations and facilitating the acquisition of a home that perfectly aligns with their needs and preferences.

Beyond her real estate endeavors, Sheri finds joy in singing karaoke and discovering scenic hiking spots across Maryland. Additionally, she actively participates in animal rescue efforts, extending her support to organizations and individuals dedicated to aiding voiceless creatures in need.

Her greatest joy comes from spending time with her two beautiful grandsons, whom her daughter has blessed her with. They hold a special place in her heart.
