Attributing the source of her success to the time she spends with God each morning before walking out the door, ensuring He will direct her steps. And gives credit to First Weber, who she states has definitely given her the tools for success since day one in the field. Tammy has connected with numerous remarkable individuals in the real estate field and has formed lasting relationships with many of them. She enjoys getting to know their stories and playing a pivotal role in fulfilling their dreams of homeownership.

Outside of real estate, Tammy enjoys fishing, camping, hiking, kayaking, waterfall chasing, snowshoeing, as well as bird, deer, and bear hunting. She has also contributed tourist articles to the Lake Gogebic Times Magazine, showcasing her family's resort (Root Cellar), where she and her children were raised and continue to reside in the Northwoods region.
