

Tim Stoverink, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Tim assists individuals in enhancing their lives through their real estate decisions, whether it is finding their first home or their forever home.

New York City, New York Mar 19, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Tim serves as a Broker Associate at LUX Denver Real Estate, based in Denver, Colorado. He prioritizes tailoring each transaction to individual needs, especially for first-time homebuyers.

"I love building relationships with people and learning about their life, their hopes and goals, and their family and friends. I love learning about people, as it helps me tailor their experience in buying and selling homes. I want to ensure that I match your lifestyle with your real estate goals."

Growing up in Ferguson, Missouri, Tim graduated from St. Louis University High school and earned a Marketing Degree from Missouri State University in 2006. He is from a family of public servants, including his father, grandfathers, brother, cousins, and uncles who serve as firemen and police officers in the St. Louis area. He takes his knowledge and experience with public service and law enforcement very seriously and has a strong passion for collaborating with police officers and firefighters.

Beginning his career in sales in 2000, Tim relocated to Denver in 2006 to serve as a volunteer teacher at Regis Jesuit High School. This experience allowed him to deeply engage with Denver's lifestyle and culture while maintaining his ties to St. Louis. His extensive knowledge of the challenges and attractions of moving to the "mile-high city" is evident.

Following his volunteer work, Tim returned to sales, spending almost a decade at Park Meadows Mall and Southwest Plaza Mall, where he sold a diverse range of products from footwear to men's tailored clothing. Later, he transitioned into the jewelry industry, collaborating with Denver's "friend in the jewelry business," Tom Shane.

Since embarking on his journey as a realtor in 2020, Tim has dedicated himself to making the home hunting process enjoyable for clients while familiarizing them with the local area. His impressive credentials include Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), Certified Expert Listing Agent (CELA) and Certified Negotiation Expert (CNE).

Having shown homes in every corner of the state, Tim credits his success to his adaptability, commitment to customer service, and providing a comprehensive, one-stop-shop experience. He loves to mix humor and fun into any home tour and his energy and passion are infectious.

"I not only consider this a job, but I take it as a mission to get to your goals. I am very passionate about making sure you succeed in whatever your real estate goals may be; however, I like to have fun in the process. Amidst all the paperwork and deadlines, there is plenty of time for jokes, Seinfeld references, and having a good time. Most people are either passing their home onto a new person or family to make their story in it or buying a new place to add to their own story."

Happily married, Tim's wife, Jennifer, is a second-grade teacher at Good Shepherd Catholic School in Denver. In 2019, they welcomed their beautiful daughter, Stella.

In his free time, Tim enjoys baseball, comedy, and spending time with his family. He plays inline hockey and is a casual skier. He is very involved in his community (Craig Hospital, specifically the traumatic brain injury patients) and neighborhood, and he loves to explore local breweries, parks, and meet new people.
