The music video of "Children of Pain" is the result of a collaboration between the artist and Tanja Subotic and Tom Jantol, an animation team from Serbia. This song is dedicated to all the children suffering the effects of war throughout the world. It was written shortly after the events which took place on October 7th in the Middle East.

Vincere would like to express his gratitude to the creative Serbian team for their emotional video: "I am grateful to Tanja and Tom for their ability to capture and express my vision."

Please join us at the online premiere of "Children of Pain" on Saturday, April 6th at 2:00 PM ET and help us share this important piece with your readers and viewers. We hope that the universal caring and love for children will help bring peace!

"Children of Pain" was written, produced and performed by Vincere Sylph.
Animation by Tanja Subotic and Tom Jantol.

A special thank you to Tanja and Tom for their collaboration and for your beautiful, emotional and creative animation!

A special thank you to Eyran Katsenelenbogen for his amazing support and help throughout the production of this song.
