

Byron Schoettle, DO: A Leading Interventional Radiologist in Lubbock, Texas

Dedicated to Providing Exceptional Patient Care

New York City, New York Apr 11, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - A valued member of the medical community in Lubbock, Dr. Schoettle is affiliated with the prestigious University Medical Center. His presence at this esteemed institution further solidifies his reputation as a trusted interventional radiologist, offering patients access to cutting-edge treatments and personalized care.

Back in the early days of his academic career, his journey to becoming an accomplished physician began at the University of Illinois College of Medicine at Chicago. He pursued a fellowship in vascular and interventional radiology from 1992 to 1993, honing his skills and expertise in specialized procedures.

Prior to this, he completed his residency in diagnostic radiology at the Kansas City University GME Consortium/St. Luke's Des Pere from 1985 to 1988. His academic foundation was laid at the A.T. Still University Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, where he graduated as part of the Class of 1984.

An authority in his field, the doctor is board-certified in diagnostic radiology by the American Osteopathic Board of Radiology, which is an organization that provides board certification to qualified Doctors of Osteopathic Medicine who specialize in the use of imaging in the diagnosis and treatment of disease.

Committed to excellence, Dr. Schoettle's patients describe him as compassionate, knowledgeable, and dedicated to providing the highest quality of care. With licenses to practice medicine in Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma, his reach extends beyond Lubbock, impacting the lives of patients across multiple states.
