Los Angeles, California Apr 16, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - —Aliens invading Earth are not new to us, people living on this planet now and then heard about them. They come on Earth in different forms, colors, and physical appearances. But how can you expect that they will invade us for a specific mission? At every appearance of the aliens, confidential investigations will be conducted by the FBI. How would you engage yourself in these investigations?

The Invaders Come For Our Women: The Last City Cowboy is a science fiction comic novel that has a trilogy series about the story of DJ and how his mission and responsibilities to stop his hometown from invasion by aliens. Their goal in this book is to kidnap the women on Earth and use them in stasis for experimentation.

For this year, the 2024 Los Angeles Festival of Books, in coordination with Bookmarc Alliance, Dilgilio Rodriguez will participate in this event and share his book, The Invaders Come For Our Women: The Last City Cowboy, with the audience this coming April 20 to 21, 2024 at the University of Southern California.

“The bar was filled with strangers, and I was one to usually mingle with the crowd, but something about today was holding me back for the crowd.”

The Invaders Come For Our Women: The Last City Cowboy is a twisted adventure of a DJ with colorful comic illustrations to make it enticing to its readers how mind-provoking to encounter aliens unexpectedly. Many unexplainable situations will run through the minds on how they will resolve this situation. Many authorities will get involved, but DJ was never ready for it. How would he embrace this unexplainable situation?

Dilgilio Rodriguez is a United States Military veteran who proudly served this country during the Gulf War and still serves today to honor and protect as a Law Enforcement officer for more than twenty-four years. Now a Law Enforcement trainer, and a fan of extraterrestrials, he became an author by releasing this first book series.
