POLI NIKA announces a collaboration with Canadian chart-topping songwriter Liz Rodrigues (Celine Dion, Eminem, Nicole Scherzinger). Ethereal in spirit, yet still worldly-wise, "Down to Earth" captures that fleeting, precious moment in a relationship when two people decide to open their hearts and show their true selves to each other.

The artist says: "It's always unnerving for me to embrace that vulnerability; as I sing I am celebrating every tiny step towards openness. Towards the sensation of floating in space"

In a world overshadowed by uncertainty, "Down to Earth" is a guiding light, inspiring listeners to let down their guard – and open their hearts to a profoundly human connection
