PRESIDENT CANDIDATE REV. DR CHRISTINA CLEMENT FILES CASE WITH DC ON INTERNATIONAL AND STATE WIDE REPARATIONS

Washington, D.C, District of Columbia Apr 30, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Breaking News: Presidential Candidate Rev. Dr. Christina Clement Files Groundbreaking Case for International and Statewide Restitution

Independent Party, Presidential candidate Rev. Dr. Christina Clement has filed a historic case with the District Court of the District of Columbia, marking a pivotal moment in the fight for justice and equality. The case, titled Clement vs. Garland, includes Supreme Court Justice John Roberts Jr. and Attorney General Merrick Garland as defendants, and represents a bold step towards addressing centuries of systemic injustices and advocating for restitution on both an international and statewide level.

Rev. Dr. Clement's unprecedented legal action seeks to address the enduring legacy of the illegal kidnapping of the original people of the land, inhumane slavery, inhumane colonialism and continued discrimination that has plagued societies worldwide. By filing this case, she underscores her unwavering commitment to rectifying historical wrongs and building a more equitable future for all.

Rev. Dr. Clement and her team have chosen this legal avenue as a means to uphold law and order while pursuing restitution that is long overdue. Their approach reflects a deep respect for the legal process and a steadfast determination to effect meaningful change within the framework of the law.

Through her campaign platform, Rev. Dr. Clement has championed the cause of social justice, emphasizing the urgent need for restitution to redress the harms inflicted upon marginalized communities. This legal initiative exemplifies her dedication to translating advocacy into concrete action, offering hope and empowerment to those who have long been denied justice.
