Board Certified Expert Utilizing Advanced Neuroscience Methods to Identify and Treat Brain-Related Symptoms

New York City, New York Apr 26, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Kyle Bonesteel, PhD, ABPP-CN, BCN, MSCP, stands out as one of the elite board-certified neuropsychologists in Illinois, recognized by the American Academy of Clinical Neuropsychology (AACN). His unique distinction includes being among the select few in the United States certified by both AACN and BCIA in the fields of neuropsychology and EEG neurofeedback, with an additional specialization in clinical psychopharmacology as a licensed prescribing medical psychologist.

Since its inception in 2001, NeuroHealth Associates has been at the forefront of helping individuals of all ages navigate life's challenges. Dr. Bonesteel and his team employ cutting-edge neuroscience methods not only to diagnose but also to pinpoint the specific brain-related factors contributing to symptoms, addressing the root cause of these issues.

With expertise in various brain mapping, biofeedback, neurofeedback, and data analysis systems, NeuroHealth Associates tailors over 150 protocols to each patient under the meticulous guidance of Dr. Bonesteel. This personalized approach ensures that the treatment aligns with the patient's needs, improving symptoms and enhancing treatment outcomes for a wide range of psychological and neurological conditions.

Dr. Bonesteel's academic journey includes a Doctor of Philosophy Degree from Ohio University in 1998, followed by a specialized internship in neuropsychology at the University of Michigan in 1999. He then performed his postdoctoral fellowship in neuropsychology in the departments of Behavioral Neurology and Neuropsychology at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, and contributed significantly to academia as a professor of neurology at Loyola University Medical Center from 2003 to 2015.

Noteworthy among his professional affiliations, Dr. Bonesteel holds the position of Vice President at the Illinois Association of Prescribing Psychologists, in addition to memberships in prominent organizations like the International Society for Neuroregulation and Research and the American Psychological Association.

His commitment to tailoring treatment modalities and alleviating human suffering has garnered significant media attention, with features in prestigious outlets such as The Chicago Tribune, WGN News, and Channel 7 ABC News, among others. In addition, Dr. Bonesteel has taught and supervised doctoral trainees and has lectured in the neurology residency program, showcasing his passion for advancing neuropsychology and improving patient care.
