Centered on the themes of moving, living, or relocating to the Lone Star State, Mike & Marilyn prioritize cultivating relationships and serving others with humility and compassion.

New York City, New York Apr 1, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Mike & Marilyn Torres Jenkins, a dynamic marital team, are both licensed realtors who make up The Jenkins Realty Group, brokered by eXp Realty. Their specialization is catering to clients throughout North Texas, encompassing the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, with a particular emphasis on first-time homebuyers, those seeking to upsize, and empty nesters.

A full-time domestic team, Mike & Marilyn have seamlessly integrated various aspects of the real estate industry into their client representation efforts. Their primary focus revolves around offering valuable insights into the current real estate market, the different school districts, the burgeoning business landscape, and the amenities provided by the growing housing developments in Texas.

In January 2015, Marilyn began her journey in the banking industry as a personal banker, a role she found deeply fulfilling. However, significant life changes in the fall of 2018 prompted her to resign from her position and devote herself to caring for her terminally ill mother at home. It was during this period that her mother encouraged her to pursue a different career path, ultimately leading her to enter the real estate industry in 2019.

Contrastingly, Mike's upbringing was steeped in real estate, as his father flourished as a successful realtor in San Francisco during the late 1970s / early 1980s. Transitioning from corporate America to real estate, he brings a wealth of familial wisdom and experience to their joint venture.

Renowned for their effective collaboration and people person skills, Mike & Marilyn consistently achieve successful transaction outcomes. Their unwavering commitment to their profession and relentless pursuit of knowledge have driven them to seek training and coaching opportunities from respected figures in the industry, including Tom Ferry and Larry Kendall (The Ninja Selling System).

Recognizing the ever-changing nature of the real estate market, Mike & Marilyn emphasize the importance of continuous education and staying abreast of current trends and strategies to best serve their clients. They have earned numerous prestigious designations such as Pricing Strategy Advisor (PSA), Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), and Graduate, REALTOR® Institute (GRI), further enriching their expertise.

As part of their professional affiliations, Mike & Marilyn actively engage with the National Association of Realtors, the Collin County Association of Realtors, and the Texas Association of Realtors.

Relationships are everything in real estate and nothing speaks more to that than Mike & Marilyn's passion for their profession and for their clients. They excel as communicators, consistently upfront and transparent in every interaction. Their service is marked by passion, integrity, and professionalism, as they not only cultivate connections but also build client relationships that evolve into cherished friendships.

Having resided in the vibrant Dallas metroplex since the early 1980s, Mike & Marilyn have cultivated a marriage brimming with joy and longevity, almost mirroring their residency in the bustling city. They are the proud parents of three adult children and hold a deep devotion to their faith in God.

Apart from their real estate endeavors, the couple finds joy in working out, running, taking leisurely strolls with their two Labrador retrievers named Oscar and Molly, and cherishing moments with their children. Cooking and meal prepping are a passion for Marilyn, as she enjoys exploring various cuisines in the kitchen.
