

Naveen Ramineni, MD, Leading Pain Management Specialist at The Interventional Spine and Joint Center

Specializing in Minimally Invasive Procedures, Regenerative Medicine, and Comprehensive Spine Care

New York City, New York Apr 10, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - In practice since 2005, Dr. Naveen Ramineni, MD, provides expert care for acute and chronic spine and musculoskeletal pain at The Interventional Spine and Joint Center.

As a fellowship-trained and board certified physician, Dr. Ramineni brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to his practice, with offices in Houston and Shenandoah, Texas. He has extensive training in the comprehensive treatment of the spine and musculoskeletal conditions through minimally invasive interventional procedures and specific rehabilitative therapy. Additionally, he offers state-of-the-art regenerative medicine techniques.

With a background in Biology and Sociology from Emory University and a Medical Degree from Drexel University College of Medicine, Dr. Ramineni pursued further specialization in physical medicine and rehabilitation at Baylor College of Medicine, where he learned to evaluate and treat musculoskeletal and spinal conditions. His training culminated in an accredited pain fellowship under the guidance of renowned and pioneering interventional pain physician, Dr. Elliot Krames, in San Francisco, where he honed his skills in interventional spinal procedures and regenerative medicine techniques.

Dual board certified pain medicine and physical medicine and rehabilitation, Dr. Ramineni's credentials attest to his commitment to excellence in patient care. His expertise further extends to membership status with the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians and the American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

Licensed to practice in Texas and affiliated with top-tier medical facilities such as Tops Surgical Specialty Hospital, Houston Methodist The Woodlands Hospital, and Hendrick Health, Dr. Ramineni continues to be a trusted resource for those seeking comprehensive spine and joint care. His unwavering dedication and commitment to patient well-being have solidified his reputation as a leader in the field of pain management.

Inspired by the influence of his doctor's parents, Dr. Ramineni credits his success to prioritizing ample time with each patient, avoiding haste. His dedication, combined with a blend of hard work and fortunate circumstances, brings him fulfillment in witnessing patients' pain alleviation and their return to daily activities.
