

Susan Michelle Dashow, DO Retires After Distinguished Career at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital

Celebrating the Legacy of Dr. Susan Dashow, a Trailblazer in Anesthesiology

New York City, New York Apr 5, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Dashow is a retired anesthesiologist from Thomas Jefferson University Hospital. With a wealth of experience and a passion for patient care, she left a lasting impact on the medical community.

Back in the early days of her academic career, she graduated with her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from Des Moines University College of Osteopathic Medicine in the class of 1987, laying the foundation for her successful career. She then went on to complete her residency in anesthesiology at Allegheny Health Network Medical Education Consortium (AGH/WPH) and Hackensack University Medical Center in the late 1980s and early 1990s.

In pursuit of clinical excellence, the doctor maintained board certification in anesthesiology through the American Board of Anesthesiology (ABA). As the certifying body for anesthesiologists since 1938, the ABA is committed to partnering with physicians to advance lifelong learning and exceptional patient care. Its mission is to advance the highest standards of the practice of anesthesiology.

Throughout her career, Dr. Dashow was dedicated to staying at the forefront of her field, actively participating in various professional memberships. She was a proud member of the American Osteopathic Association (AOA), the American Society of Anesthesiologists (ASA), the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Medical Association, and the Florida Osteopathic Medical Association.

In reflecting on her retirement, she expressed gratitude for the opportunities she had to make a difference in the lives of her patients. She emphasized the importance of compassion and empathy in patient care, values that have guided her throughout her career. Her legacy as a trailblazer in anesthesiology serves as an inspiration to future generations of medical professionals.
