Los Angeles, California Apr 15, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Mysterious death cases, wide investigation with the police authority, and search for the missing piece are the main factors to check in murder cases. A town or people would be involved in many ways if they find suspicious hints. When these things happen within the vicinity of the town it may be easy to say that we can find the suspect but if the suspect left a mysterious clue or cleaned the crime scene, it is difficult to find it. A vague move you can say to find clues, hints, or evidence at this point.

Who Drew the Two? is a mystery fiction novel. The story narrates the mysterious death of a young rich man in the area of West Texas. The death is still the talk of the town because of the longer investigation to find the suspect of the crime. The community stepped up and helped the authorities on it.

For this year, the 2024 Los Angeles Festival of Books, in coordination with Authors Press, Melton Luttrell will participate in this event and share his book, Who Drew the Two?, with the audience this coming April 20 to 21, 2024 at the University of Southern California.

"I loved this book. A great whodunnit, well-written with great character descriptions. Based in a town in West Texas a murder is committed. Bet you can't guess"

- Book reviewed by Gill, Goodreads.

"This is a book that you are gonna struggle to put down...This is such a well-thought-out and well-written novel with so much background info."

— a book reviewed by G L Clay, Amazon.

Who Drew the Two? is a nerve-wracking story plot that highlights the mysterious death of a young rich person. A drumbeat in every chapter discloses all the thrilling events that are happening.

Melton Luttrell has a number of records of Square L-Records which he managed for several years. They managed those records for the benefit of several square dance resorts.
