

Visit New Zealand on a Short Trip with New Zealand eVisa

Auckland, New Zealand Apr 22, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - New Zealand is a popular travel destination for foreign citizens, especially Canadian citizens. They can bypass the need for a New Zealand visa by applying for the newly improved New Zealand Electronic Travel Authorization (NZeTA). The country provides two types of visas for its foreign travelers. One is a traditional paper visa that is ideal for longer stays in the country. However, if the duration of the visit is less than 90 days, then NZeTA is the ideal visa type. The NEW ZEALAND VISA FOR CANADIAN CITIZENS can be applied and obtained online, without paying a physical visit to the nearest New Zealand embassy. is given out to foreign travelers for three purposes, tourism, business, and transit visits. This electronic visa waiver can be obtained online through the New Zealand Immigration website.
