

Wisconsin Native Landon DeVon Set to Drop New Single "Don't I" on April 17th

Richmond, Virginia Apr 4, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Wisconsin-born singer-songwriter and lyricist, Landon DeVon, is gearing up to release his highly anticipated new single titled "Don't I" on April 17th. With his signature vocal style and bar-heavy lyricism, Landon DeVon has captivated audiences since bursting onto the music scene in 2016.

Best known for his iconic phrase "Look What You Made Me Do," DeVon has established himself as a dynamic force in the industry, with a string of successful performances at local venues, major stages, and festivals. His debut project, "Opaque," set the stage for his most recent album, "Chakra 4," which garnered critical acclaim upon its release.

With hits like "I'm Not Coming Down," which became one of the most-streamed songs on the LUM streaming app, Landon DeVon has solidified his reputation as a rising star in the music world. His electrifying performances at venues such as Miramar, Majestic Theater, and Milwaukee's Pride festival have further cemented his status as a force to be reckoned with.

Under the guidance of his manager, Andre Williams, DeVon has recently signed a distribution deal with ISwimWithSharksInc, marking a new chapter in his career. His first major release under this deal, "Coulda Had It," produced by Chetameister, received widespread acclaim upon its release in November 2022.

Following his triumphant return to Milwaukee's Pride festival in 2023, Landon DeVon announced the launch of what he calls "The Blue Era." This continuation of his "Chakra series" puts emphasis on the Throat Chakra and its correspondence with the color blue. DeVon plans to release a series of back-to-back R&B and hip-hop singles, showcasing his evolution as an artist and his commitment to pushing boundaries.

"Don't I," set to release on April 17th, is poised to be another standout addition to Landon DeVon's illustrious discography. Produced by a talented lineup of producers including Pdubcookin, Chetameister, 187PRODUCTIONS, and Arum Beats, this single promises to deliver the captivating soundscapes and thought-provoking lyricism that fans have come to expect from DeVon.

As anticipation builds for the release of "Don't I," Landon DeVon remains focused on his mission to inspire and uplift audiences through his music. With his unique blend of soulful vocals and poignant storytelling, DeVon continues to solidify his place as one of music's most promising talents.
