

Boricua Legend DJ Charlie Chase Honored

A promotional poster for an event honoring DJ Charlie Chase. The background is red with a large, stylized Puerto Rican flag (featuring red, white, and blue stripes and a white star) on the right side. In the center is a portrait of DJ Charlie Chase, a man with short dark hair, wearing a dark blue suit jacket over a black shirt. The text is in a bold, white, distressed font. At the top, it says 'HONORING BORICUA HIP HOP LEGEND' followed by 'DJ CHARLIE CHASE' in large letters. Below that, it says 'OFFICIAL AFTER PARTY TONIGHT!'. Further down, it lists 'CLUB: PARK AVE - BROOKLYN' and '7PM - 12AM'. At the bottom left, it says 'Tickets @ DjCharlieChase.com'. At the bottom, there are logos for 'TVA TREND VIBEZ AGENCY', 'PRESENTED BY TREND VIBEZ AGENCY & BLACK MARKER TV', and 'BLACK MARKER BANDIT'.

New York City, New York May 31, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Born in New York City, Charlie Chase was raised in Williamsburg Brooklyn, until the age of 12. Then he moved to the Bronx, where he became a musician and true Hip Hop pioneer during the early years of the movement in the 1970s. DJ Charlie Chase was the first Latino DJ to officially emerge and establish Latinos as a force in Hip Hop on a global level. He honed his skills alongside other early pioneers like Kool Herc, Afrika Bambaataa, Grandmaster Flash, and Grand Wizzard Theodore performing in diverse spaces like streets, parks, clubs, and schools. In 1978, DJ Charlie Chase co-founded the World Famous Cold Crush Brothers with his partner

Tony Tone and became and continues to be one of the primary influences emulated by many DJs, MCs, and rappers in Hip Hop music today. Notable Achievements Wild Style (Hip Hop Movie), 1981 Inducted into 'Technics DMC DJ' Hall of Fame, 2003 Honored with 'The 100 Most Influential Puerto Ricans of Our Time', 2004 Inducted into 'The Smithsonian African American History Museum', 2020 Featured in 'The D.C. National Hip Hop Museum', 2022 inducted into The Smithsonian American History Museum, 2023.

Has been hired to speak at Cornell University, New York University, Hunter College, and many other schools Internationally.

DJ Charlie Chase has also been honored by The 2024 National Puerto Rican Day Board of Directors for his impact on music and his amazing career. There will also be the first ever float at the Puerto Rican Day Parade dedicated to Boricua DJ Legends with the main focus being DJ Charlie Chase as well as Jellybean Benitez, Frankie Cutlass, Tony Touch, Little Louie Vega as well as others The float is sponsored by Trend Vibe Agency and Black Marker TV.

<https://www.nprdpinc.org/honorees?pgid=lusqn84s-ea394bff-4787-49b3-bb89-0d21a9716ea5>

He is also being honored at a tribute Puerto Rican Day Parade after party at Club 275 Park in Brooklyn where an All-Star lineup is expecting to be present to honor DJ Charlie Chase. This event is presented by Trend Vibe Agency, 275 Park & Black Marker TV

He will also be seen on a Drink Champs segment with NORE & EFN DJ. It's an amazing segment.

<https://www.instagram.com/reel/C7XmoKCxJ48/?igsh=NGhxZmVodm4weDRy>

<https://www.tracklib.com/music/artists/charlie-chase>

<https://five5tampa.com/artist/charlie-chase/>

<https://artistecard.com/CharlieChase>

Media Contact

Trend Vibez Agency LLC

Bookings@TrendVibezAgency.net

888.998.8782

200 E ROBINSON STREET Suite: 1120

Source : DJ Charlie Chase

See on IssueWire