

Cannes Film Festival: Trailer launch of a visionary film on AI, The Zebras

The trailer of Zebras will be launched in Cannes Film Festival on 22nd May

Thrissur, Kerala Jun 9, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Yulin Productions

The highly anticipated trailer of "The Zebras," directed by acclaimed filmmaker Aneek Chaudhuri, is set to launch at the prestigious Cannes Film Festival. Organised by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting and FICCI, the trailer launch will take place at the India Pavilion on May 22.

<https://t2online.in/screen/bengali/director-aneek-chaudhuri-writes-about-his-cannes-experience-and-the-upcoming-film%C2%A0the-zebras-dark-start/926199>

Starring Sharib Hashmi, Priyanka Sarkar, and Usha Banerjee, "The Zebras" promises to be a thought-provoking cinematic experience. Produced under the banner of Yulin Productions, the film explores intricate human emotions and societal nuances with depth and sensitivity in the disguise of Artificial intelligence.

<https://www.indulgexpress.com/entertainment/cinema/2024/May/20/aneek-chaudhuris-the-zebras-dark-spot-trailer-travels-to-cannes-film-festival>

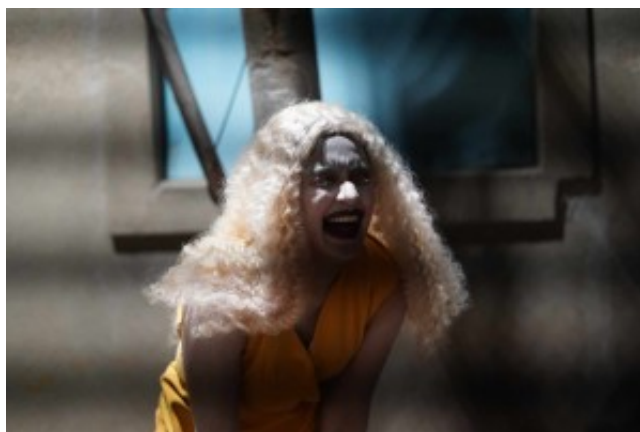

The director, Aneek says, "This is indeed a big opportunity for the whole team. Cannes has always been the place to go when it comes to promoting your art. People there, irrespective of their magnitude, respect your art form and hence, people are likely to come with an open mindset."

The trailer offers a glimpse into the compelling narrative of "The Zebras," showcasing its powerful performances and visually striking cinematography. It captivates viewers with its enigmatic storyline, leaving them eager to uncover the mysteries within the film. Through evocative imagery and poignant dialogue, the trailer sets the stage for an unforgettable cinematic journey.

Prior to its Cannes launch, "The Zebras" trailer was showcased to an eager audience in Kolkata, where it garnered widespread acclaim and appreciation. Viewers were enthralled by the trailer's gripping narrative and nuanced portrayal of human emotions. The film's compelling storyline and stellar performances left a lasting impression, generating anticipation and excitement for its official release.

In Cannes, this film will be a part of the Bharat Parva marking the 77th anniversary of the festival.

As "The Zebras" prepares to make its mark on the international stage at Cannes, anticipation is at an all-time high. With its captivating storytelling and stellar cast, the film is poised to captivate audiences worldwide and solidify its place as a cinematic effort.

Media Contact

Yulin Productions

praveenjamesoc1@gmail.com

Source : Yulin Productions

See on IssueWire