

Chazin & Company announces three grants to Arizona nonprofits as part of its inaugural Roadshow event

Phoenix, Arizona May 23, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Chazin & Company, a leading provider of outsourced accounting and finance services for nonprofit organizations nationwide, today announced it has awarded three $5,000 unrestricted grants to Arizona nonprofits as part of its first-ever Roadshow event.

The May 20 Chazin Roadshow in Arizona is the first event in a series that Chazin & Company plans to hold around the country. Organizers describe the event as an opportunity for nonprofit leaders to gain insights from industry experts, network with each other and celebrate the impact of their work. The grants were presented at a ceremony at the Children's Museum of Phoenix.

The three Arizona nonprofits selected, from among 180 applicants, to receive the $5,000 grants from Chazin & Company are:

The Hope House of Arizona

Hope House of Arizona is dedicated to serving transition-aged youth, ages 18-24. It was born out of a passion and love for youth in foster care and is committed to ensuring that every youth who ages out of foster care has a safe place to call home, a healthy network of support and supportive services to help them achieve self-sufficiency and life-long independence. Their goal is to serve as a safe-haven and place of hope by preventing homelessness, promoting healing, providing help and preserving hope in the lives of every youth aging out of foster care.

The Laloboy Foundation

The Laloboy Foundation (LBF) was founded by Paolla Jordan after her son Adrio Romine's death by suicide on May 11, 2019, at the age of 17. Located in Gilbert, Arizona, LBF was founded to assist families that are in financial need to provide counseling support for their children. LBF seeks to help improve mental health support and provide internet safety workshops for parents in the community. LBF works to prevent suicide by providing free counseling service stipends to families that have financial need to support their children.

Mt. Graham Safe House

Mt. Graham Safe House (MGSH) was founded in 1995 to assist victims of domestic violence. A program for sexual assault survivors was added in 1998. Since then, MGSH has grown into a 32-bed facility with advocacy programs for both sexual assault and domestic violence victims. They have served more than 7,000 families at least once. Based in Safford, Arizona, MGSH is a co-ed facility welcoming all victims of domestic violence. Pets also are welcomed and sheltered in an on-site pet facility keeping pets safe with their families.

"At Chazin & Company, we are committed to giving back to the communities we serve. We're honored to present these grants to three Arizona nonprofits tackling critical issues," said Adele Chazin, President & CEO of Chazin & Company. "By investing in these organizations, we're investing in a brighter future for Arizona. The Chazin Roadshow is just one way we're committed to empowering nonprofits to achieve their goals. We look forward to similar collaborations as we take the Roadshow to communities across the country."

"It was inspiring to see so many nonprofit leaders coming together at this event to share knowledge and build connections," Patrick said. "This will undoubtedly strengthen their impact in our community. Thanks to the Chazin team for organizing such a valuable gathering."

Chazin & Company also announced today that it will waive the usual $3,000 onboarding fee for nonprofits attending the Arizona Roadshow and that sign up with Chazin as new clients during June, July and August this year.
