

Denise DeBrule Collins, MD, FACR, A Renowned Pediatric Radiologist Making Strides in Healthcare Advocacy

Embodying Excellence, Compassion, and a Steadfast Commitment to Improving Patient Care

New York City, New York May 7, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Collins, a devoted pediatric radiologist, is making waves in the medical field with her exceptional expertise and dedication to healthcare advocacy. Holding esteemed titles such as Vice Chair of Henry Ford Medical Group Radiology, Chief of Radiology at Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital, and Senior Staff Pediatric Radiologist, she has established herself as a prominent figure in the radiology community.

With board certifications from the American Board of Radiology in diagnostic radiology, she boasts an impressive educational background. She completed her residency training at Beaumont Hospital in Diagnostic Radiology, followed by fellowship training at Children's Hospital of Michigan in Pediatric Radiology. She also holds a degree from Michigan State University College of Human Medicine and has a special interest in non accidental trauma, neonatal medicine, and pediatric GI and GU diseases.

Distinguished as a Fellow of the American College of Radiology (FACR), Dr. Collins is not only dedicated to her clinical practice but also actively advocates for patients through responsible legislation and upholding the patient-doctor relationship. Her involvement as a former board member of the Michigan Radiological Society, former councilor of the American College of Radiology, and current Delegate to the Michigan State Medical Society and American Medical Association showcases her commitment to improving healthcare practices.

A keen researcher, her research interests span across multiple facets of Non Accidental Trauma and expert testimony, demonstrating her expertise in the field. She has been recognized for her outstanding contributions with prestigious awards such as the Joseph Ponka Caring Physician Award at Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital and the Chief Resident Radiology title at Beaumont Hospital.

Furthermore, Dr. Collins has a strong educational commitment, serving as the Track Chair for the RSNA Associated Sciences Consortium from 2011 to 2015. Her dedication to advancing healthcare practices locally and internationally is evident through her continuous efforts in education and advocacy. Dr. Collins is a member of the American Board of Radiology Exam Writing Committee, a volunteer board member for the American Registry of Radiology Technology (RRA) Register Radiologist Assistant Committee, and an assistant professor at Wayne State University School of Medicine.
