New York City, New York May 8, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Revolutionizing Urological Treatment with Mastery in Robotic Surgery and Urologic Reconstruction

Dr. Eric J. Hick, DO, a board certified urologist and robotic-trained physician, is an esteemed member of the team at Urology Specialists of Ohio. He brings a wealth of experience in general urology, with a particular focus on urologic robotic surgery, erectile dysfunction procedures, and urologic reconstruction, including urethroplasty and urinary sphincters, solidifying his reputation as a leading expert in the field.

A highly accomplished academic, Dr. Hick obtained his Undergraduate Degree from Ohio Wesleyan University and his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine Degree from Midwestern University – Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1990. He further honed his expertise through a residency in urology at Wilford Hall USAF Medical Center and Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, Texas.

Dr. Hick's impressive career spans over 12 years as an on-staff urologist at medical centers across Ohio. Prior to his tenure in Ohio, he served with honor in the US Air Force for 11 years, culminating his service at Wright Patterson USAF Medical Center in 2010. His exceptional service in Iraq as both a trauma surgeon and urologist earned him prestigious accolades, including the USAF Meritorious Service Medal, USAF Commendation Medal, and USAF Iraq Service Campaign Medal.

As a Diplomate of the American Osteopathic Board of Urology, a member of the American Urological Association, North Central Section, and a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, Dr. Hick remains at the forefront of his field. His contributions to urology are not only evident through his published articles in the Journal of Urology but also through his dedication to educating others through lectures and presentations.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Dr. Hick enjoys a rich personal life filled with hobbies such as golfing, fishing, spending time with his family through sporting events, and traveling, with his preferred destination, St. Lucia, serving as a source of relaxation and rejuvenation.
