

Indie Pop Musician “Lost Foxes” goes solo!

Duncan Therrell goes solo and takes on a new sound with his music project "Lost Foxes"

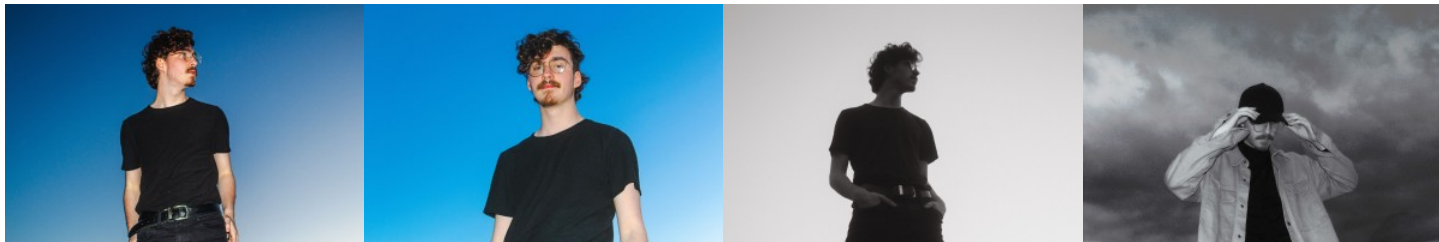

Greenville, South Carolina May 20, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - In May 2024, Duncan Therrell, the creator of the music project "Lost Foxes," went solo. Lost Foxes, an alt-Indie musician from Greenville, SC, is known for his distinctive mix of alternative pop and anti-pop sounds.

Drawing inspiration from various influences, Lost Foxes has crafted a captivating and original sound. In December 2023, Lost Foxes opened for rapper Austin Joyce at Swanson's Warehouse and was later featured in South Carolina's GREET Magazine. With his indie-pop release "Petrichor," he launched his new era of music. In November 2023, Lost Foxes unveiled his self-titled album, captivating audiences with a bold exploration of innovative sounds and diverse musical genres. The album delves into themes of nostalgia, loneliness, hope, and youthfulness, solidifying Lost Foxes in the indie music scene.

"Lost Foxes' self-titled album, "Lost Foxes," invites listeners on a captivating 11-track journey that seamlessly navigates diverse musical landscapes, creating a tapestry of ethereal atmospheres and catchy tunes" -Alfred Afari of The Pit London

Currently, Lost Foxes is immersed in his newest project, which promises to push the boundaries of his artistic skill and sound. His upcoming single, "Boston," is slated for release in the coming months, along with additional singles from his forthcoming album.

Media Contact

Lost Foxes

lostfoxesmusic@gmail.com

Source : Lost Foxes

See on IssueWire