

Introducing the Definitive Monograph of ex-Yugoslavian Artist: 'Željko Ćorović - Retrospective'

London, United Kingdom May 10, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Ćorović Publishing is thrilled to unveil a masterpiece of artistic exploration: "Željko Ćorović - Retrospective," a limited edition hardcover book that encapsulates the unparalleled journey of one of the most influential artists of our time.

This meticulously crafted first edition, signed by the visionary himself, delves deep into the kaleidoscopic world of Željko Ćorović, spanning 6 decades of unparalleled creativity. With 184 captivating pages, this opus invites art enthusiasts and collectors alike to immerse themselves in the rich tapestry of art history, theory, and culture.

At the heart of this exposition lies the vibrant narrative that traverses three languages - English, Bosnian, and Serbian Cyrillic - echoing the cultural heritage that shaped Ćorović's unparalleled artistic vision. From political and religious satire to scientific theory, portraiture, sketch, interior design, geological landscapes, and sculpture, each page unfolds a new facet of his multifaceted genius.

Born in Sarajevo, the crucible of Socialist Yugoslavia and consequently, the city most destroyed by religious nationalists in the country's infamous civil war, Željko Ćorović's journey from the prestigious Sarajevo Academy of Fine Art to international acclaim and his ultimate settlement in London is a testament to artistic conviction amidst adversity. As readers delve into his timeless creations, they are compelled to confront unoriginal thinking and celebrate the human spirit's indomitable resilience.

Fronted by a moving foreword penned by acclaimed writer/director Zlatko Pranjić, "Željko Ćorović - Retrospective" is more than just a book; it's an immersive experience that invites readers to embark on a profound artistic odyssey. Featuring full-colour illustrations throughout and a detailed semi-biographical narrative, this book is an essential addition to any art book collection.

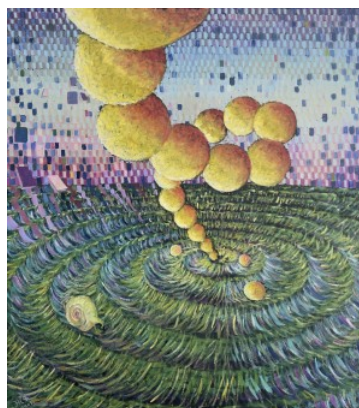

Whether you're a seasoned art scholar or an enthusiast discovering Ćorović's work for the first time, "Željko Ćorović - Retrospective" promises to captivate, inspire, and leave an indelible mark on your own artistic journey.

Key Details:

- Book Title: Željko Ćorović - Retrospective
- Author: Boris Ćorović
- Foreword: Zlatko Pranjić
- Publisher: Ćorović Publishing
- Publication Year: 2024
- RRP: £40.00
- Format: Hardcover
- Language: English, Bosnian, Serbian
- Features: Illustrated, Full Colour
- Genre: Art, Biography
- Edition: First Edition, Limited Edition
- Item Height: 24 cm
- Item Width: 32 cm
- Item Weight: 1 kg
- Number of Pages: 184
- ISBN: 9798893791419

"Željko Ćorović - Retrospective" is now available for purchase, offering a rare opportunity to own a piece of Yugoslavian artistic history. For inquiries, please contact Ćorović Publishing. Or CLICK HERE. It is also available in Notting Hill bookstore 'Lutyens and Rubinstein' and Whitechapel's 'Freedom Books'.

For media inquiries, reviews, or interview requests, please email: zcorovic@gmail.com

Media Contact

Corovic Publishing

boristcorovic@gmail.com

Source : Corovic Publishing

See on IssueWire

