

Jessica Stevens, CP, MLS, MLPD, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

A Texas Realtor Committed to Responsible Development and Exceptional Service

New York City, New York May 14, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Jessica Stevens, CP, MLS, MLPD, is a licensed realtor at Bock Realty Group in College Station, Texas, where she brings a unique blend of land development expertise and passion to the real estate industry. With a primary focus on responsibly developing Texas and providing unparalleled services to her clients, Jessica has established herself as a trusted professional in the field.

With over a decade of experience in various aspects of the real estate industry, Jessica's knowledge spans farm and ranch, land development, commercial and luxury residential sales, 1031 Exchanges, and real estate law. She prides herself on her meticulous attention to detail and commitment to staying updated on land and development markets through ongoing research within the Land and Development program at the prestigious Texas A&M University School of Architecture.

Jessica began her career in law, where she specialized in public and private law in estates and trusts, real estate licensing and transactions, complex family law and dissolution of property, as well as products and premise liability. Her transition to the legal and real estate team of a private international equity firm further honed her skills in building diverse properties, from restaurants, hotels, hospitals, and sports facilities to flying car hubs, both domestically and internationally.

Later in her career, Jessica began work in legislation at the Texas Capital with the Texas Real Estate Commission and Texas Appraisal Licensing and Certification Board to protect land and real estate pricing in Texas.

A proud third-generation Texas A&M Aggie, Jessica's deep connection to her family's legacy of land and community development in Bellville, Texas, fuels her commitment to preserving and enhancing the beauty of Texas. Her love for hunting, fishing, and hiking reflects her appreciation for the natural landscapes of the state.

Married to a Texas police officer and a devoted mother to two children and two energetic hunting dogs, Jessica values family time and enjoys activities like hosting community gatherings, volunteering and attending charity events, and standing for Texas A&M sporting events.

Jessica Stevens is not just a realtor; she is a defender of Texas land, a guardian of family legacies, and a responsible developer of communities. Her unwavering commitment to excellence and service beyond expectations makes her a true asset to the real estate industry and the Texas community, helping every individual find their perfect place in the world.
